

We achieve by our own efforts

Hindu Swayamsevak Sangh AUSTRALIA

SANKRANTI UTSAV SYDNEY MAHANAGAR

JANUARY 2017

In India and around the world, Makar Sankranti is also known as Gupi, Lohri, Pongal, Thaipusam and by other names.

Here at home, we, the Hindu Australians, see the strength of Dharmic culture through the many ways in which the ancient traditional (Puranic) allegorical stories and epics are brought to life through festivals. In Australia, we recognize that many festivals (utsav) play an important role in expressing the spiritual significance in celebratory, joyous ways while bringing people together. And we have developed our own ways to celebrate this expression of science and spirituality.

Date: 22 January 2017, Sunday

Time: 4.00 PM - 5.30 PM

Venue: Ollie Web Reserve, 37A Glebe Street
Parramatta (Corner of Glebe Street and Pitt Street).

Contact: Amitiji Patel 0433 894 020
Sreejithji Sivakumar 0433 309 866

All are requested to assemble by 3.45 PM for a 4.00 PM start.

Manya Nihal Agar
Sangachalak, Sydney Mahanagar

website: www.hssaus.org facebook: www.facebook.com/hss.sydney

Hindu Swayamsevak Sangh (Aus) Inc ARB – 600 150 365

